ONE OF SOUTHWEST FLORIDA'S
 MOST ESTEEMED
 FULL-SERVICE LAW FIRMS.

Sypret, Meshad, Resnick, Lieb, Dumbaugh, Jones, Krotec & Westheimer, P.A. has been serving the area since 1968. The firm has grown with the community and now includes 10 lawyers and a support staff of 15.

Established 34 years ago by Jim D. Sypret and John W. Meshad, the firm added attorneys to its roster over the years, including Michael L. Resnick in 1973, M. Joseph Lieb Jr. in 1976, John D. Dumbaugh in 1983, Teresa D. Jones in 1986, Peter J. Krotec in 1989, Scott Westheimer in 1996, Angela D. Flaherty in 2000, and Nancy E. Cason in 2002.

As a full-service law firm, Sypret, Meshad has become thoroughly diversified. A law firm of necessity requires a broad spectrum of legal concepts. Accordingly, each attorney is involved in continuing legal education in an effort to maintain a diversity of knowledge with concentrated expertise in specific areas of law. Many of its attorneys are board-certified in a field of expertise by the Florida Bar Association.

Sypret, Meshad also offers a full range of legal services, including personal injury, real estate, criminal, family, commercial and corporate law, as well as preparation and trust and estate planning. The firm is noted for having an excellent litigation department, offering commercial, constitutional, banking, construction and personal injury law for both plaintiff and defendant. Several of the attorneys are board-certified in real property law, with emphasis on land use zoning, planning, development and finance.

While the practice encompasses business transactions throughout the entire Southeastern United States, most of its practice deals with the state of Florida, with particular emphasis in the Sarasota metropolitan area. The firm is active in the community and has a sincere interest in the growth and stability of the community and its residents.
